

15:04
irishtimes.com

THE IRISH TIMES

Fri, Mar 29, 2019

NEWS SPORT BUSINESS OPINION LIFE & STYLE CULTURE

Courts > High Court | Supreme Court | Criminal Court | Coroner's Court | Circuit Court |

Settlement may be reached next week in Quinn children case

Seán Quinn snr's five adult children dispute claims they are liable for some €410m under guarantees

about 3 hours ago

Mary Carolan

Sean Quinn's children Sean jnr, Aoife and Brenda pictured at the Four Courts where their action against IBRC over €415 million in guarantees for loans has now been deferred to allow for talks between the parties. Photograph: Collins Courts

 A settlement could be reached next week of the marathon case by Sean Quinn's five adult children challenging the validity of securities provided by them for hundreds of millions of loans advanced by Anglo Irish Bank to Quinn companies.

... The five dispute claims they are liable for some €410 million, €82 million

Irish Times 29 March 2019

“More than 150,000 documents were provided for the hearing, which were presented to the court via TrialView, a cloud platform via which lawyers and judges can use their own devices to access all the papers and follow the evidence presented in court.”